Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, On May 1, 1949, at Lutheran Memorial Church in Pierre, South Dakota, Ruth Bergeson and Paul Inman did profess their love for each other before God and other witnesses; and,

WHEREAS, They have given love and devotion to each other for forty years; and,

WHEREAS, This union has been blessed with four children--Julie, Roger, Randy and Jana; and,

WHEREAS, Their family has been increased by four more special children--Dana, Cathy, Diane and Mike; and,

WHEREAS, They have become Nanna and Grandpa to four grandchildren--Paula, Kati, Courtney and Tony; and,

WHEREAS, They have publicly expressed a loving concern for each other; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note that Paul and Ruth Inman are truly an excellent example of Christian love and marriage:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 3, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join with their family in hoping that the joys and blessings they share will continue and be many-fold.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twentieth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
